"Although we're a fresh voice on the airwaves, our charitable mission is deeply rooted in our station: to entertain, inform, educate, and inspire our community on issues that matter - especially health, wellbeing, and social inclusion. We don't just talk to Dorset - we talk with Dorset"

Our audience

45 to 65-year-olds

60% female / 40% male

Our listeners love the perfect mix of classic favourites that spark great memories, alongside the best from today's charts. They're sociable, love a good deal, and enjoy spending time with family or friends - whether it's a day out or an evening get-together. They like to know what's happening locally, and they're community-minded, health-aware, and actively involved in life along the Dorset coast.

At Dorset Coast Radio, we understand how time-consuming and complex campaign planning and advert creation can be especially for small businesses and community groups. That's why we offer end-to-end support from our marketing & production team to take the strain off your shoulders.

Whether you're launching a new service, raising awareness for a cause, or simply seeking greater visibility, we'll help you craft campaigns that resonate with our listeners and achieve meaningful results. You don't have to be a media expert - just bring your vision, and we'll help you bring it to life.

Proudly local, Dorset Coast Radio loves to share the stories, events, and experiences that matter to everyone who lives, works, and plays along our beautiful coastline.

Our presenters are part of the community too - local through and through, and proud to call the Dorset coast their home.

Dorset Coast Radio is your soundtrack of feel good songs to sing along to. We bring you the very best songs from the past four decades, sprinkled with timeless favourites you'll love. Alongside the classics, we mix in the freshest new tracks we know will strike a chord with our listeners.

In the evenings, through our Community Connect programme, you can hear interviews with some inspiring local people as we shine a spotlight on events, causes, and voices that matter.

We're a vibrant, volunteer-led local radio station dedicated to amplifying local voices, promoting health and wellbeing, and celebrating the spirit of Dorset. We're more than just a radio station - we're a trusted companion, a hub for connection and a community resource.

We believe that radio is more than entertainment—it's a lifeline of connection, empowerment, and opportunity. We exist to serve the people of Dorset with accessible, inclusive, and responsive broadcasting that uplifts voices, celebrates local life, and drives positive change.
